A

NEW ART

OF

SHORT and SWIFT WRITING,

WITHOUT

Characters.

Licensed and Entred, according to Order.

To all Lovers of Short, Plain and Swift WRITING.

AFter Fifty Years Experience of this now New and Secret Art; I having Engraved more of Short-hand Books than all the Gravers in England, viz. Mr. Metcalfs, Mr. Sheltons first, and his Psalm-Book, Mr. Ratcliffs of Plimouth, Mr. Job Everards, Mr. Rich's Table Psalm-Book, and his New Testament, Mr. Farthings, &c. besides Mr. Elisha Coles's, and three contriv'd by my self, yet never took Notes any other way than by this old us'd, and new Publish'd Method; of which, I presume, not to over as Mr. Shelton in his Dedication to the Supream Power of England, to his Zeiglographia, viz. That an ordinary Capacity (by Gods Blessing) may be able in two hours Learning, to write any Chapter in the Bible, and to give an account of every Word. Wherein take this Observation, viz. That he is as true in this pretence to the performance, as that Power was in their solemn Oathes, Protestations, and Declarations, to that sacred Power above them.

This I dare Really to engage, that in two Weeks, with practice each day at leisure times, this Art may be made practical, according to the invent of the Author. Vale.

For

For Encouragement, Observe,

1. HEre is no charging of the Memory with Characters, Vowels Places, Prepositions or Termination.

2. For the reading of which, here is no occasion for a large Leading Character before each word, to avoid confusion in reading what you in haste write.

3. The design of this Art is as follows, viz. 1. Words of divers Syllables are to be considered by the beginning, middle, and endings of Words. I might spend time and Paper, but the whole contains the Rule; so that writing this small Tract 3 times over, is sufficient for direction to any ordinary Capacity that can write a Legible Hand.

Directions for the Improving of this Work.

1. OBserve that instead of Vowels places in Short-writing by Characters, this Work is done by a contrary Rule, viz.

Here in this Work of fast-writing by common hand, only the sounding Consonants are to be observed, especially in long words of divers syllables, of which I might give you divers Examples; but I think this hint abovesaid,

said, is sufficient to satisfie any Ingenious undertaker, in regard the whole Work is an Exemplar. In which there is no design of a limitation to this method, every Ingenious person will (as is common in Short-hand) vary the method according to his own fancy (in this work more especially) he having the largest liberty for a variation to accompliſh the design.
